Culture & Society Workshop | Fall 2020

Thursdays, 4 PM to 5:30 PM, Zoom Meetings

9/17 Mallory Fallin
“Multiple Possibilities: Envisioning the Future of Climate Change’s Impacts on Public Health”

9/24 Emilio Lehoucq
“Context-Dependent Public Understandings of Algorithms: Do Americans Think Predictive Automation is Fair?”

10/1 John Cataldi
“The Confederate Battle Flag and True Believers”

10/8 Philip Fang
“The Economics of Creativity: Authenticity and Hit-Making in the Co-Development of Scripts between China and Hollywood”

10/15 Laura Acosta-Gonzalez

10/22 Anna Michelson
“The Politics of Happily Ever: Romance Genre as Aesthetic Public Sphere”

10/29 Emily Handsman
“Equity as Access: Analyzing Suburban School Districts’ Policy Responses to Inequality”

11/5 Erik Lovell
“The Structure of Unstructured Lives: The Daily Rounds of Homeless Young Adults”

11/12 Miri Eliyahu
“Creating a Lifestyle: How Social Movements Create Consumers”

The Culture and Society Workshop is an interdisciplinary workshop for advanced graduate students (third-year and above) and faculty whose research involves the connections between culture and society. New members are always welcome! For more information, please contact:

Student Coordinators:
Emilio Lehoucq
Philip Jun Fang
cultureworkshop@gmail.com

Faculty Director:
Wendy Griswold
w-griswold@northwestern.edu

Department of Sociology